THE JOSEPH AND ELIZABETH ROBINS PENNELL COLLECTION OF WHISTLER-IANA SHOWN IN DIVISION OF PRINTS LIBRARY OF CONGRESS SOUTHWEST PAVILION CATALOGUE COMPILED BY JOSEPH & ELIZABETH ROBINS PENNELL

WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE LIBRARY BRANCH MAY 1921
PORTRAIT OF J. M. N. WHISTLER
PEN DRAWING BY THE ARTIST. NO. 279 IN THE CATALOGUE
INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The extraordinary collection, of which this brief catalogue lists only the fraction selected for a special exhibit, represents thirty years of ardent effort on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Pennell to gather together every item—book, essay, manuscript and print—and to record every significant reference to the life, the work, and the repute, of the artist and writer whom they esteemed the greatest of modern times, and to whom they were personally devoted. Their motives in forming it are indicated in the Preface which follows. Their opportunities—as prompt admirers of the work, as intimates and confidants of the man, and as his chosen biographers—were unique. And the resulting collection has, as a record, a completeness probably unparalleled by that of any other artist or writer.

Their gift of it to the United States and the coincident gift by Mr. Freer of his own Whistler Collection—similarly comprehensive on the purely artistic side—ensures to the National Capital (place of his earliest public associations) resources for the study of Whistler's art and personality such as do not and could not exist elsewhere. The Freer Collection—in a building of its own—will not be accessible to the public for several months. But in the meantime—and especially in connection with the meeting here of the American Federation of Arts and the American Institute of Architects—it has seemed well to present an immediate exhibit of representative items from the collection. This exhibit, selected by Mr. and Mrs. Pennell and arranged under their direction, is now installed in the southwest pavilion of our Division of Prints and adjacent spaces. This brief list of the items— forerunner of the complete catalogue which we hope to issue later—has also been personally compiled by them.

The collection reached Washington in 1917, and the gift of it was acknowledged in the Librarian's Report for that year. The damage, referred to at the close of the Preface—damage certainly due to moisture, but whether in transit or in prior storage has never been ascertained—fortunately did not affect the items of most concern to the main purpose of the material.

OUR WHISTLERIANA

The collection was begun by us over thirty years ago. We expect still to add to it, as long as we live; and we hope, indeed, that it may be added to by others so long as there continues an interest in the life and work of one who was not only the greatest of American artists, but, in our judgment, the greatest artist of modern times.

Great also as an artist in words. Hence, much of the collection relates to Whistler the writer: a phase of his work the interest in which will, we are sure, increase with time.

On this side—the literary and biographic—the collection is almost complete. It is certainly more nearly so than any other known to us. It includes many personal records which are unique—among them nearly four hundred letters addressed mostly to us. It includes all the papers in the Whistler-Ruskin lawsuit, once in the possession of Mr. Anderson Rose. It includes over a hundred volumes of articles and clippings concerning Whistler; these date mainly from 1900, when he asked us to write his life. It includes all save two of the catalogues of his exhibitions. The present Exhibit represents only about one-tenth of the Collection.

That such comprehensiveness was worth while rests not merely upon the eminence of Whistler's place as an artist, but upon the fantastic changes in the estimates of him by the public: veering from blame to praise and then again to the petty detraction characteristic of the Insular and the Ignorant.

On the artistic side, the first items that we secured were the French set, and the Thames series of etchings. These were given to us by Mr. Frederick Keppel, who knew how much we admired Whistler's work and how we later learned to love the man himself.

We might have had the Venice sets—and others—but at the time the price seemed for us prohibitive. Also, when we mentioned to Whistler himself a liking for one of his prints or books—a liking which might tempt us to buy it—the thing itself would be apt to come to us with a dedication signed with the Butterfly. A glance at the collection shows how many items reached us in this happy way.

Paintings were, of course, beyond us, though there were many now become the pride of public and private collections, which at the time we could have had for a trifle of their later values.
We have given the collection to the United States to be permanently kept in the Print Division of the Library of Congress and we wish to thank the Government for accepting it, and the Librarian and the members of the Print Division for so admirably presenting it.

We know that Whistler would have appreciated the honor of having this phase of his life work preserved in the Capital of the country he was so proud of. And because his paintings and drawings are in the Freer Collection in the National Museum, students of Whistler (and they are growing in number daily) can now in the same city study all phases of Whistler's art.

Finally, we hope that other collectors of Whistleriana may help round out and make perfect and complete this record of the life work of the great artist and author.

JOSEPH PENNELL,
ELIZABETH ROBINS PENNELL,
Authors of the Authorized Life of Whistler.

A number of items were damaged in transit from London to Washington, somewhere, somehow, no one will ever know—one of the little incidents of the Great War.
CASE 1-A
Paintings exhibited at the Grosvenor Gallery, 1877, and shown at The Trial in evidence.

1 ARRANGEMENT IN BLACK NO. III. PORTRAIT OF HENRY IRVING AS PHILIP OF SPAIN. OIL.

2 NOCTURNE IN BLACK AND GOLD. THE FALLING ROCKET. OIL.
The painting Ruskin objected to. His criticism in Fors Clavigera caused Whistler to take action against him after the picture was exhibited at the Grosvenor Gallery, 1877. Owned by Mrs. Samuel Untermeyer. From Nocturnes, Marines and Chevalet Pieces. Goupil and Company. Photograph.

3 NOCTURNE IN BLUE AND SILVER. OLD BATTERSEA BRIDGE. OIL.
Shows original frame designed by Whistler with Butterfly on it. Old Battersea Bridge and Irving were, after The Falling Rocket, the most discussed pictures in court during the Trial. National Gallery of British Art. Photograph.

CASE 1-B
Documents in the Whistler-Ruskin Trial and copy of Fors Clavigera for July, 1877, containing the libel, page 201.

4 WRIT ISSUED BY JAMES ANDERSON ROSE.
Whistler's solicitor summoning William Michael Rossetti, W. C. Wills and Albert Moore to attend at the High Court as witnesses for Whistler.
5 Complete Brief for the Plaintiff. Whistler.
Marked with Serjeant Parry's fee of thirty guineas.

6 Overdraft for £100, on the London and Westminster Bank.
Drawn by Mr. Nightingale, builder of the White House.

7 Volume of Letters from Whistler to Anderson Rose,
His Solicitor, and to Serjeant Parry, His Counsel, and Letters of Congratulation to Whistler On
The Verdict in His Favor.
Although Whistler gained the case and drove Ruskin from the Slade Professorship at the University of Oxford, he became bankrupt, owing to the costs of the action. The White House and his effects were sold for debt and he destroyed many of his works. The Sheriff's announcement of the sale is in Case 10-B. Forty letters from Whistler concerning the Trial are in this volume.

8 Fors Clavigera, July 2nd, Letter LXXIX.
Contains the libel by Ruskin on page 201. Whistler underscored the libel and added the query on the margin
"How does he know this?" The pamphlet has many other comments by him. The libel was "For Mr.
Whistler's own sake, no less than for the protection of the purchaser, Sir Coutts Lindsay ought not to have admitted works into the gallery in which the ill-educated conceit of the artist so nearly approached the aspect of wilful imposture. I have seen, and heard, much of Cockney impudence before now; but never expected to hear a coxcomb ask two hundred guineas for flinging a pot of paint in the public's face."

9 Another Copy of Brief for Whistler.
With corrections, letters and documents in the case.

10 Mr. Ruskin's Costs.
A four page circular (two pages of text) issued by the Fine Art Society of London asking subscriptions to pay
Ruskin's costs.

11 Writ Issued to J. Edgar Boehm, Martin Colnaghi, and Algernon Graves.
Not one of them appeared for Whistler.

WHISTLER'S BROWN PAPER PAMPHLETS. NOS. 15–27.

CASE 1-D

15 WHISTLER V. RUSKIN. ART AND ART CRITICS. J. A. M.N. WHISTLER. LONDON: CHATTO AND WINDUS.
Brown paper cover with Butterfly, The White House, Chelsea, Dec. 24, 1878. The first of Whistler’s brown paper booklets. Dedicated to Albert Moore, the one artist who had the courage to testify for him at the Trial. The pamphlet gives Whistler’s reasons for bringing the action against Ruskin and contains his comments on the proceedings in court.

16 THE SAME. THIRD EDITION.
Third Edition added on title-page.

17 VENICE PASTELS. LONDON.
Printed by T. Way, 21 Wellington Street, Strand. Catalogue of Exhibition of Pastels held at the Fine Art Society’s, January 1881, after Whistler’s return from Venice. This copy gives notes of the prices by D. Croal Thomson. T. R. Way copied in pastel all or nearly all, and his copies were later sold at Sotheby’s.
18 CAVIARE TO THE CRITICS.

19 ETCHINGS AND DRY-POINTS, VENICE. SECOND SERIES.
J. MCNEILL WHISTLER, TITE STREET, CHELSEA.
"Out of their own mouths shall ye judge them," on page after title. Catalogue of Exhibition of the Twenty-Six Venice and other Etchings, held at the Fine Art Society's in 1883. After each number is printed a quotation from the criticisms of his previous exhibitions.

20 LETTER TO MR. MORGAN, THOMAS WAY'S MANAGER.
Way printed the Catalogue of Etchings and Dry-Points. Whistler writes "If it be possible, the first thing in the morning without retarding the work, see that the marginal note that at present reads 'You can't always sometimes generally tell' is altered to 'Sometimes, generally, always." A Catalogue of the First Series of Etchings and Dry-Points was published, a four page circular without a cover.

21 "NOTES"—"HARMONIES"—"NOCTURNES." J. MCNEILL WHISTLER, TITE STREET, CHELSEA, MAY, 1884. FIRST EDITION.
Catalogue of an Exhibition of Pastels, Water-colours and Paintings at Dowdeswell's Galleries. Contains L'Envoi, Proposition No. 2. The Exhibition was an Arrangement in Flesh Colour and Gray.

22 CAVIARE TO THE CRITICS.
Pages from Etchings and Dry-Points, showing change in paper, type and spacing of page, in the Sixth Edition.

23 "NOTES"—"HARMONIES"—"NOCTURNES." J. MCNEILL WHISTLER, TITE STREET, CHELSEA, MAY, 1884.
Another copy. Inserted, a page from the Catalogue of James Tregaskis, where it is described as "now excessively rare."

24 ETCHINGS AND DRY-POINTS. VENICE. SECOND SERIES. SIXTH EDITION.
Printed on the verso of title, "T. Way, 21 Wellington Street, Strand." The four pages of Caviare to the Critics added at the end and Whistler's letter to The World of February 28, 1883.
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

25 "NOTES"—"HARMONIES"—"NOCTURNES." SECOND SERIES. J. MCNEILL WHISTLER, 133 NEW BOND STREET, W., MAY 1886.

26 ETCHINGS AND DRY-POINTS. VENICE. SECOND SERIES.
Another copy of the Sixth Edition, Way's address no longer appears on verso of title. The Catalogue has been set up again and printed on different paper.

27 THE SAME.
Another copy of the Sixth Edition, again with Way's address on verso of title.

WHISTLER'S TEN O'CLOCK. NOS. 28–47.

CASE 1–E
Copies of the "Ten O'Clock."

28 MR. WHISTLER'S "TEN O'CLOCK." BUTTERFLY. LONDON. (1886 ON COVER, 1885 ON TITLE-PAGE.) PUBLISHED BY CHATTO AND WINDUS.
Printed by T. Way. In Way's handwriting "One of twenty-five copies."

29 THE SAME.

30 MR. WHISTLER'S TEN O'CLOCK. A LECTURE BY JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER. PORTLAND, MAINE. THOMAS BIRD MOSHER. MDCCCCXVI.
Contains a pretended letter from us to Mosher dated August 24th, 1911, made to look as if we had written it for Mosher. It was stolen from The Life. We are not aware if the whole book has been stolen or not. Bound in boards and made up according to the notions of Mosher. Swinburne's Fortnightly article, his poem Before the Mirror, and other matter added.

31 MR. WHISTLER'S "TEN O'CLOCK." LONDON. 1886 ON COVER, 1885 ON TITLE-PAGE.

65 CATALOGUE OF AN EXHIBITION OF DRAWINGS AND LITHOGRAPHS OF THE ALHAMBRA BY JOSEPH PENNELL. WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY J. MCNEILL WHISTLER. JAMES S. EARLE & SONS, PHILADELPHIA.
This Exhibition and Mr. Whistler's Introduction brought about the Sickert Case, Walter Sickert writing an insulting and libellous article in The Saturday Review accusing Joseph Pennell, and indirectly Whistler, of issuing lithographs which were not lithographs. Sickert lost his case, Frank Harris lost his post as Editor of The Saturday Review, and Whistler and Pennell proved that they knew something about lithography as an art. (See CASES 12-G and 12-H.)

68 CATALOGUE OF A COLLECTION OF DRAWINGS BY PHIL. MAY. THE FINE ART SOCIETY. 1895. With a note on Phil May's drawings by Whistler.

Engraved by Dalziel. Proof. See No. 79.

CASE 2-D
Books illustrated by Whistler.

79 HISTORICAL AND LEGENDARY BALLADS BY WALTER THORN-BURY. LONDON. CHATTO AND WINDUS, 1876.
Contains four illustrations made by Whistler for Once a Week in which they first appeared. On margin of drawing originally called The Morning Before the Massacre of St. Bartholomew—here illustrating a poem, Lady Mabel's Lovers—Sala wrote "Jimmy Whistler, clever, sketchy and incomplete like everything he has done. A loaf of excellent fine flour but slack-baked." Three other Whistlers included are: Count Burckhardt, The Major's Daughter, The Relief Fund in Lancashire, engraved by Dalziel Brothers and Joseph Swain. The four were the first illustrations Whistler made for magazines.

80 A CATALOGUE OF BLUE AND WHITE NANKIN PORCELAIN FORMING THE COLLECTION OF SIR HENRY THOMPSON. ILLUSTRATED BY THE AUTOTYPE PROCESS FROM DRAWINGS BY JAMES WHISTLER, ESQ. AND SIR HENRY THOMPSON. LONDON: ELLIS AND WHITE. 1878.
Large Paper copy, so far as is known the only one; formerly in the possession of S. P. Avery. Contains his book plate. Cover, gold on yellow. Probably designed by Whistler.

80a STÉPHANE MALLARMÉ. VERS ET PROSE. MORCEAUX CHOISIS. AVEC UN PORTRAIT PAR JAMES M. N. WHISTLER. PARIS: LIBRAIRIE ACADÉMIQUE DIDIER. PERRIN ET CIE, LIBRAIRES-ÉDITEURS, 1893.
Frontispiece, Whistler's lithograph of Mallarmé. On fly-leaf, Whistler's autograph inscription "To Joseph Pennell" signed by the Butterfly.

81 A CATALOGUE OF BLUE AND WHITE NANKIN PORCELAIN.
Ordinary edition. Cover printed in gold on blue. Both editions contain twenty-seven drawings by Whistler, the finest drawings of decorative objects ever made by a Western artist. Signed by Whistler.

Copy annotated by the authors. Containing manuscript notes and proofs of Errata and facsimile of letter from Whistler to Mr. Richards, his framemaker.
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

CASE 3–G

Portraits of Whistler and Paintings attributed to Whistler.

144 PORTRAITS OF WHISTLER.

Top: left to right. Whistler Smoking. Oil. Painting attributed to Whistler, signed Whistler, though signature cannot be seen in photograph. Another reproduction of same painting. Photographs.

Below: Letter from Théodore Duret with history of painting. Written in red ink at foot of second page, "certainly not genuine J. P."

Bottom: Portrait of Whistler in the Big Hat. Oil. Painted during his student years in Paris. To compare the two portraits makes the Whistler Smoking more doubtful than ever. Photograph.

Still life attributed to Whistler. M. Duret gives its history in his letter. It has lately been claimed by a French painter, Stany Sassy, as his work. He sold it, he says, for eighty francs; later, as a Whistler, it brought one hundred and fifty thousand. Photograph.

145 PORTRAITS OF WHISTLER.

Top: Bust of Whistler, by Sir J. E. Boehm, owned by Thomas Way.

Bottom: Bust of Whistler, by Sir J. E. Boehm, the property of Princess Louise until sold at a charity sale at Christie’s during the war. Different base. Photographs.

146 PORTRAITS OF WHISTLER.

Top: Portrait group in Whistler’s studio photographed in 1881: Julian and Waldo Story, Whistler, Frank Miles and Hon. F. Lawless.

Bottom: Enlargement of same. Photographs.

CASE 3–H

Various books about Whistler.

147 THE ART OF JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER. AN APPRECIATION BY T. R. WAY AND C. R. DENNIS. LONDON. GEORGE BELL AND SONS, 1903.

Inserted, a criticism: "The First in the Field," by Joseph Pennell. [Manuscript.]

The first book about Whistler published after his death.

148 THE SAME. THIRD AND CHEAPER EDITION. LONDON. GEORGE BELL AND SONS, 1905.

Open at a lithograph by T. R. Way of sketch by Whistler A White Girl, in the possession of John F. Braun.

Inscription from author on fly-leaf, "To Mr. and Mrs. J. Pennell." Copy annotated by Joseph Pennell. A letter from author to Mrs. J. Pennell inserted.

151 JAMES McNEILL WHISTLER VON HANS W. SINGER. MIT ELF VOLLBILDERN IN Tonätzung. BERLIN, JULIUS BAR.-D. 1904. DIE KUNST SERIES, EDITED BY RICHARD MUTHER. Inscription "With compliments of the author, Dresden: 29 II 1904" on title-page.

152 WHISTLER AS I KNEW HIM. BY MORTIMER MENPES. LONDON, ADAM AND CHARLES BLACK. EDITION DE LUXE. LIMITED TO 500 COPIES, OF WHICH THIS IS NO. 83. SIGNED BY MORTIMER MENPES.

The illustrations engraved and printed at the Menpes Press under Mr. Menpes' direction. Original etching of the Menpes Children by Whistler, frontispiece, not published in the small paper edition.

153 JAMES McNEILL WHISTLER. AN ESTIMATE AND BIOGRAPHY, BY FRANK RUTTER. LONDON, GRANT RICHARDS, 1911.

Based chiefly, with small acknowledgment, on The Authorized Life of Whistler, by E. R. and J. Pennell, who have filled this copy with notes.

154 WHISTLER, BUTTERFLY, WASP, WIT, MASTER OF THE ARTS, AN ENIGMA. BY HALDANE MACFALL. EDINBURGH AND LONDON, T. N. FOULIS. 1905. NO. 1, Spirit of the Age Series.

Dedicated "To Joseph and Elizabeth Robins Pennell whose Life of the Master the World of Art Awaits." Butterfly on the title-page, below every illustration, in the text, and on the cover. The book suppressed by Miss Philip for infringement of copyright. In later editions Butterfly and dedication to the Pennells omitted. An inscription, "To Joseph Pennell from Haldane MacFall," on fly-leaf and, pasted below, the "Notice to Publishers and Others" from Watkins, Williams and Steel, Miss Philip's solicitors, perpetually restraining Mr. MacFall and his publishers from using the Butterflies. Several letters from Haldane MacFall are inserted.
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

155 JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER. BY H. W. SINGER. LONDON: A. SIEGLE. 1905.
Translated from the German. Langham Series of Art Monographs, edited by Selwyn Brinton.

156 THE WORKS OF JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER. A STUDY BY ELISABETH LUTHER CARY. NEW YORK, MOFFAT, YARD AND CO., 1907.
Gives at end an incomplete and often misleading list of Whistler's Works. Manuscript corrections and annotations by Joseph Pennell.

157 WHISTLER. BY BERNHARD SICKERT. LONDON: DUCKWORTH AND CO. NEW YORK: E. P. DUTTON AND CO.
Slight and imperfect appreciation of Whistler, his life and his work, but interesting because written by an artist. Full of corrections and annotations by Joseph Pennell. Very incomplete "Catalogue of Oil Pictures by James MacNeill Whistler" at end. His name is misspelled.

158 WITH WHISTLER IN VENICE, BY OTTO H. BACHER. NEW YORK, THE CENTURY COMPANY, 1908.
First edition, containing letters signed "Maud Whistler" and from Whistler to Bacher, three of these reproduced in facsimile. The edition was suppressed by Miss Philip for infringement of copyright. Whistler's letters did not appear in later editions. Inserted, a letter from Mr. W. W. Ellsworth explaining the situation to Mr. Fisher Unwin, who proposed publishing the book in England; also paper "With the compliments of the Century Company."

CASE 4-A
Whistler's Houses in London.

159 CHEYNE WALK HOUSES.
Top: Whistler's second house in Chelsea, No. 2 Lindsey Row, now 96 Cheyne Walk.
Bottom: Whistler's first house in Chelsea, No. 7 Lindsey Row, now 101 Cheyne Walk. Photographs.

160 TOWER HOUSE AND WHITE HOUSE.
Top: Tower House, Tite Street, Chelsea, where Whistler lived when he married, 1888.
Bottom: The White House, Tite Street, built for Whistler by E. W. Godwin. Whistler lived here at the time of the Ruskin Trial. 1878. The expenses of the Trial and building the White House caused his bankruptcy, and he was sold out and left for Venice at the end of 1879. Photographs.
CHEYNE WALK HOUSES.
Top: 21 Cheyne Walk, where Whistler lived after he left the Tower House until he moved to Paris in 1892. Bottom: 74 Cheyne Walk, house where Whistler died: middle one of the three houses to the left. In the distance, Chelsea Church, where his funeral was held. Photographs.

CASE 4-B
Books about Whistler.

RECOLLECTIONS AND IMPRESSIONS OF JAMES A. MCNEILL WHISTLER, BY ARTHUR JEROME EDDY. PHILADELPHIA AND LONDON, J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY, 1903.
Second book about Whistler that appeared after his death. Eddy was painted by Whistler in Paris.

JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER. THE MAN AND HIS WORK. BY W. G. BOWDOIN. NEW YORK AND LONDON, M. F. MANSFIELD, 1901.
Advance sheets. At the end, list of the Avery Collection of Etchings and Lithographs in the New York Public Library.

HISTOIRE DE J. MCN. WHISTLER ET DE SON OEUVRE PAR THÉODORE DURET. PARIS. H. FLOURY, ÉDITEUR, 1904. FIRST EDITION. ÉDITION DE LUXE.
50 copies published. Boldini's Portrait of Whistler, frontispiece. On title-page, the quotation: "A thing of beauty is a joy forever," attributed to Whistler. The Little Lady Sophie of Soho, engraved by Wolf at Freer's suggestion for this book, appears here only.

THE SAME. NEW EDITION. PARIS: H. FLOURY, ÉDITEUR, 1914.
In this edition M. Duret published Whistler Smoking (see CASE 3-G) as frontispiece, and the doubtful Still Life (see CASE 3-G), and omitted from title-page the quotation from Keats attributed to Whistler in first edition. On fly-leaf, inscription "A. M. et Mme. Pennell hommage et Souvenir amical Théodore Duret."

WHISTLER, BY THÉODORE DURET. TRANSLATED BY FRANK RUTTER. LONDON, GRANT RICHARDS. PHILADELPHIA, J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO. 1917.
Translation of second edition of Duret's book. Rutter got the information for his Life from this book and ours.
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

167 WHISTLER. BY CLARENCE A. WORRALL. (IN SHORT TALKS FOR BUSY PEOPLE SERIES) 1904. HACKNEY AND MOALE CO., PRINTERS, ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA.
Hack production.

168 JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER, BY MRS. ARTHUR BELL. LONDON. GEORGE BELL AND SONS. 1904. BELLS' MINIATURE SERIES OF PAINTERS.
Manufactured by Mrs. Bell and published by the Bells against Whistler's wishes. See The Whistler Journal.

169 LITTLE JOURNEYS TO THE HOMES OF EMINENT ARTISTS. WHISTLER. WRITTEN BY ELBERT HUBBARD AND DONE INTO A BOOK BY THE ROYCROFTERS AT THEIR SHOP, WHICH IS IN EAST AURORA, NEW YORK, 1902.
A book which amused Whistler vastly when Elbert Hubbard sent him a copy.

Made out of The Life of Whistler by E. R. and J. Pennell, without thanks or acknowledgment. Several pages appropriated in various places, and letters to us bodily lifted and made to read as if written to Hartmann.

171 JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER. THE MAN AND HIS WORK. BY W. G. BOWDOIN. NEW YORK AND LONDON. M. F. MANSFIELD. MDCCCCI.
Frontispiece, Whistler, showing white lock, from photograph by Mendelsohn. London.

CATALOGUES OF WHISTLER'S ETCHINGS AND LITHOGRAPHS. NOS. 172-190.

CASE 4-C
Reproductions of Lithographs and Etchings from Kennedy's Catalogues.

172 STUDY. W. 1.
Portrait, probably of Maud.

173 THE THAMES. W. 125.
Whistler made this lithotint from the window of his room at the Savoy Hotel, where he stayed towards the end of his wife's illness. One of his few lithotints.

174 PORTRAIT OF WHISTLER. K. 54.
First and second states.
175 ANNIE HADEN. K. 62.
Third state. A portrait of Whistler's niece, now Mrs. Thynne. On the proof in the New York Public Library, Whistler wrote, "One of my very best."

176 THE DOORWAY. K. 188.
Fifth state.
One of the twelve etchings of First Venice Set.

CASE 4-D
Catalogues of Etchings and Lithographs.

177 A CATALOGUE OF THE ETCHINGS AND DRY-POINTS BY JAMES ABBOTT MCNEILL WHISTLER. LONDON: PRIVATELY PRINTED BY JOHN RUSSELL SMITH, 1874.
First Catalogue of Whistler's Etchings. By Ralph Thomas, whose copy this was, elaborately annotated by him, with Table of Contents in his writing and Note giving the numbers of plates destroyed at the Bankruptcy.

178 WHISTLER'S ETCHINGS. A STUDY AND A CATALOGUE. BY FREDERICK WEDMORE. LONDON: A. W. THIBAudeau, 1886. FIRST EDITION.
Published twelve years after Ralph Thomas' Catalogue, and more complete, but full of Wedmore's affectations and needing to be supplemented by Mr. Kennedy. (See No. 190.) Wedmore printed a Second Edition equally unreliable.

Most complete of the Catalogues. Frontispiece, early photograph of Whistler.

180 CATALOGUE OF AN EXHIBITION OF THE ETCHINGS AND LITHOGRAPHS OF JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER.
Catalogue of Exhibition given by the Caxton Club at the Art Institute of Chicago from January 31st to February 22d, 1900.

181 CATALOGUE OF A COLLECTION OF LITHOGRAPHS BY JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER WITH A PREFATORY NOTE BY JOSEPH PENNELL. EXHIBITED AT THE FINE ART SOCIETY'S, LONDON. DECEMBER 1895—JANUARY 1896.
Exhibition No. 140.
Only Catalogue for which Whistler asked any one to write the Introduction. Special edition in brown paper cover with Butterfly on cover and title-page.
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

182 J. A. McNEILL WHISTLER. ETCHEINGS, ETC., IN THE NATIONAL ART LIBRARY, VICTORIA AND ALBERT MUSEUM. WITH A BIBLIOGRAPHY. LONDON, PRINTED FOR HIS MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE BY WYMAN AND SONS, LTD. Published by the Board of Education, South Kensington. One of the useful penny pamphlets issued by the Museum.

Reproductions of all the etchings in all their states, three portfolios and a volume of text. Mr. Kennedy in many cases gives no description of the prints, only references to the numbers in the Catalogues, already made, therefore his Catalogue is often useless unless Mr. Mansfield's can be consulted with it.

184 CATALOGUE OF LITHOGRAPHS BY J. MCN. WHISTLER.
Catalogue of Exhibition held at the Grolier Club, April 4th to April 27th, 1907, with unsigned prefatory Note, probably by Mr. E. G. Kennedy.

185 TENTOONSTELLING VAN AGUARELLEN, PASTELS, TEEKENINGEN, ETC., LITHOGRAPHIEN EN EENE Schilderij, DOOR JAMES MACNEILL WHISTLER.
Catalogue of Exhibition held in Rotterdam from October 6th to November 18th, 1906. Introduction by Dr. C. Bakker.

186 ETCHINGS, LITHOGRAPHS, PAINTINGS AND DRAWINGS BY JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER.

187 THE LITHOGRAPHS BY WHISTLER. ILLUSTRATED BY REPRODUCTIONS IN PHOTOGRAM AND LITHOGRAPHY. ARRANGED ACCORDING TO THE CATALOGUE BY THOMAS R. WAY. WITH ADDITIONAL SUBJECTS NOT BEFORE RECORDED. NEW YORK: KENNEDY AND CO., 1914.
Reproductions in a portfolio and, as in Mr. Kennedy's Catalogue of the Etchings, descriptions are seldom given but the numbers in Way's Catalogue are referred to; therefore Way's Catalogue must be used with it.
LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Edition limited to 140. Title-page designed by Whistler, lithograph by Way from photograph of Whistler, frontispiece. As Way was Whistler's printer, his knowledge of the subject was more reliable than that of most cataloguers.

189 CATALOGUE OF ETCHINGS AND DRY POINTS BY JAMES McNEILL WHISTLER.
Catalogue of Exhibition held at the Grolier Club from April 15th to May 7th, 1904, the year after Whistler's death. With a prefatory unsigned biographical note.

190 CATALOGUE OF ETCHINGS. BY J. MCN. WHISTLER. COMPILED BY AN AMATEUR. SUPPLEMENTARY TO THAT COMPILED BY MR. F. WEDMORE. NEW YORK: H. WUNDERLICH & CO., 1902.
Inscription "With Mr. Kennedy's compliments, June 1903" on fly-leaf. Mr. Kennedy was the "Amateur." Manuscript notes by Joseph Pennell.

CASE 4-F
Books Illustrated by Whistler.

196 THE PICTURES OF 1886 AND THE MEN WHO PAINT THEM. PALL MALL GAZETTE "EXTRA" NO. 17. LONDON.
Contains pen-and-ink sketch by Whistler of portrait of Sarasate, shown this year at Exhibition of the Society of British Artists, also caricature of Whistler by Harper Penington.

197 THE WHIRLWIND. A LIVELY AND ECCENTRIC NEWSPAPER. LONDON. 1890.
An amusing paper edited by the Hon. Stuart Erskine and Mr. Herbert Vivian. and Whistler amused himself with it. His lithograph The Winged Hat was published October 30th. 1890. Also The Tyresmith and Mauder's Fish-Shop, Chelsea. These prints could once be had for a penny apiece; in fact they were given away.

198 THE WINGED HAT. W. 25.
Portrait of Mrs. Charles Whibley. Published in The Whirlwind.

199 A LONDON GARLAND. SELECTED FROM FIVE CENTURIES OF ENGLISH VERSE BY W. E. HENLEY. WITH PICTURES BY MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY OF ILLUSTRATORS. LONDON AND NEW YORK: MACMILLAN AND CO., 1895.
Whistler was one of the Vice-Presidents of the Society. His Nocturne Blue and Green reproduced to illustrate Henley's Poem, Nocturn.

First and only number. Whistler was represented by his lithograph of his brother Dr. Whistler, and reproduction of Symphony in White No. 3.

201 THE PICTURES OF 1886. PALL MALL GAZETTE "EXTRA" NO. 26. LONDON.
Sketch by Whistler of Gallery at the British Artists, showing velarium, and scheme of hanging. Also sketch of Harmony in Blue and Gold, same Exhibition.

CASE 4-G
The Studio Portfolio.

202 THE BLUE GIRL.
Copy by T. R. Way in colour lithography of the pastel.

Pastel. The Same.

205 THE PURPLE CAP.
Pastel. The Same.

CASE 4–H
Swinburne.

206 THE LITTLE WHITE GIRL.
Painting in its original frame, with Swinburne's verses, inspired by the picture, written on it. Royal Academy, 1865. Photograph.

207 SWINBURNE MSS. FACSIMILES. THE BIBLIOPHILE SOCIETY. PUBLICATIONS. BOSTON, 1913.
First page of Swinburne's manuscript, Mr. Whistler's Lecture on Art, The Fortnightly Review June 1888; a review of the "Ten O'Clock." This was the cause of the estrangement between Whistler and Swinburne, who never met after its publication. Whistler's reply was one of the bitterest letters in The Gentle Art.

208 NOTES ON THE ROYAL ACADEMY EXHIBITION. 1868. PART I BY WILLIAM MICHAEL ROSSETTI. PART II BY ALGERNON C. SWINBURNE. LONDON: JOHN CAMDEN HOTTEM.
Whistler had no pictures in the Royal Academy 1868, but Swinburne, in his article, gave an appreciative notice of works in Whistler's studio.

209 SWINBURNE MSS. FACSIMILES.
The last page of Swinburne's article with his signature.

210 SWINBURNE. K. 136.
Second state, the face altered to Swinburne's, for in the first state it was a portrait of Leyland, according to Obach and Co.
Reproduction from Kennedy's Catalogue.

CASE 5–A
Leyland Portraits.
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

211 THE GOLD SCAB, ERUPTION IN FRILTHY LUCRE.
Top: Whistler’s caricature of Frederick Leyland, painted after the quarrel over The Peacock Room. Sold at Sotheby’s in the bankruptcy sale, now in the Spreckels’ Collection, San Francisco.
Middle: Whistler’s sketch of the stair-way, Leyland’s house, 49 Princes Gate. The panels to the left of the stair-way painted by Whistler.
Bottom: Sketch by Whistler of decoration for the Peacock Room. Photographs.

212 ELINOR LEYLAND—FLORENCE LEYLAND. K. 109.
Daughters of F. R. Leyland. Elinor Leyland, the seventh and last state; Florence Leyland, first of nine states given by Kennedy.

213 F. R. LEYLAND. K. 102.
Second and last state.

214 FANNY LEYLAND. K. 108.
Daughter of F. R. Leyland. Third and fourth states according to Kennedy. Reproductions from Grolier Catalogue.

215 THE PEACOCK ROOM.
Top: Sketches by Whistler of Peacocks on shutters.

CASE 5-B
Leyland Documents.

216 LEYLAND PORTRAITS.
Left: Small portrait sketch of F. R. Leyland.

217 THE PEACOCK ROOM. PAINTED FOR MR. F. R. LEYLAND BY JAMES MCNEILL WHISTLER, REMOVED IN ITS ENTIRETY FROM THE LATE OWNER’S RESIDENCE AND EXHIBITED AT MESSRS. OBACH’S GALLERIES AT 168 NEW BOND STREET, LONDON, W. JUNE 1904.
Pamphlet issued by Messrs. Obach with an Introduction by C. J. H. (Holmes, Director, English National Gallery) and the note sent to the press to announce the purchase and exhibition. The print shows the Two Peacocks on the wall. The pamphlet was given away when Obachs exhibited the Room in London. It is now very rare.

218 ANOTHER COPY.
Whistler's Princesse du Pays de la Porcelaine over the mantle, where it faces the Two Peacocks.

219 LEYLAND PORTRAITS.
Top: left. Study of Mrs. Leyland by Whistler. Pastel.

THE BRITISH ARTISTS. NOS. 220–231.

CASE 5–C
Memorial to Queen Victoria.

220 THE MEMORIAL.
Top: Cover to The British Artists' Memorial to Queen Victoria on Her Jubilee, 1887. Designed by Whistler, showing the little lion, used on the Society's paper and as the sign at the Gallery Door.
Bottom: Decoration from the Memorial. Photographs.

221 THE SAME.
The first four illuminated and decorated pages with Whistler's signature on the first. Photographs.

222 THE SAME.
Further pages, with Whistler's signature on the last. Photographs.

Bottom: left. Sketch of one of his lithographs, in a letter to T. R. Way.

225 CATALOGUE OF THE SOCIETY OF BRITISH ARTISTS. WINTER EXHIBITION, 1885–6.
Whistler was a member of the Council but sent nothing to the Exhibition.

226 THE SAME. 1886.
Cover designed by Whistler and used this year for the first time. Whistler sent six works, including Note in Black (now in the Metropolitan Museum), Valparaiso, and Mrs. Walter Sickert.

227 THE SAME. 1887.
Whistler was now the Society's President. He showed one painting.

228 THE SAME. SPECIAL EXHIBITION. 1889.
The year after "The Artists went out," but the Society kept Whistler's brown paper for the Catalogue. They dismissed him, but retained some of his ideas—for a little while.

229 THE SAME. 1892.
The year of Whistler's triumphant Exhibition in The Goupil Gallery.

230 THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF BRITISH ARTISTS. COMMEMORATION ADDRESS BY THE PRESIDENT ON THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE SOCIETY BY ROYAL CHARTER. 1897. LONDON: WM. CLOWES & SONS.
The year of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, 1897. The address by Wyke Bayliss, who succeeded Whistler as President, and who was knighted. No honor was bestowed upon Whistler.

231 LETTER AND SKETCHES.
Top: Letter from Whistler on the British Artists' official paper with the lion designed by him. He writes that he is in love with the look of it and signs the Butterfly.
Bottom: Sketches by Whistler for a song Thoughts at Sunrise, by Mrs. Lymedoch Moncrieff. Whistler's writing on both sketches. Photographs.
232 PORTRAITS OF WHISTLER.
Top: left. Whistler, about 1885, with long cane and curly brimmed hat of that period.
Top: middle. Whistler seated, wearing the much talked about coat with cape, and the curly brimmed hat. Mortimer Menpes standing at his side.
Top: right. Whistler in same costume holding his hat, the white lock showing.
Bottom: Mortimer Menpes, William M. Chase and Whistler. Chase wears the flat-brimmed hat Whistler said he liked and at once adopted; thus giving the date when he first wore it. Photographs.

233 THREE WHISTLER NOCTURNES.
Top: The Thames, Blue and Silver. Oil. Owned by Hon. Percy Wyndham.
Middle: Nocturne, Blue and Green. Oil. Owned by W. C. Alexander.

234 THREE GREAVES NOCTURNES.
Painted by Walter or Harry Greaves, Pupil of Whistler. Photographs.

235 PORTRAIT (?) OF WHISTLER BY WALTER GREAVES.
The Portrait referred to in the letters on this sheet. The Merthyr Tydvil Gallery is not alone in acquiring one of these portraits. Another was bought by Mr. John Frederick Lewis for the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and now hangs upon their walls, though they refused to buy the portrait of the artist's mother for five hundred dollars when it was shown in the Academy. They doubtless paid more than that for this portrait, which they got from the Rosenbach Company, who own seven others. There is no evidence that Whistler ever posed once for Walter or Harry Greaves. If these portraits had been done from life, they would have taken up at least a year of Whistler's time. Not only this, his costume in the year 1870 was different. He did not then wear a flat-brimmed hat. We have never seen a photograph of him wearing a ribbon to his monocle, and the costume is usually taken from Spy's cartoons in Vanity Fair. Not a single one of these portraits was ever shown or heard of during Whistler’s life-time. Greaves, after the exposure at the Goupil Gallery of the incorrectness of his dates and facts, dated and signed all the paintings concerning which there was some doubt as to whether he or Whistler painted them. There was no doubt in many people’s minds that the dates are wrong. As to the portraits, there is no doubt that they were not painted from life, that Whistler never wore any such costume. Even the famous cane is of the wrong length and the only thing that is certain is the extraordinary artlessness of people who take the portraits seriously. It is even more extraordinary that any one with artistic pretensions should be so imposed upon. Photograph.

CASE 5-F
Documents in the Greaves Affair.

236 WHISTLER’S OLD BATTERSEA BRIDGE.
For this painting the critics said Whistler got his idea from Walter Greaves’ Passing Under Battersea Bridge (see no. 241) when the latter was at the Goupil Gallery. For his painting Greaves gave the date 1862, and Whistler’s Nocturnes were painted in the Seventies. But it was found that Greaves had made a mistake in the date and the British critics and their American imitators were forced to admit that Whistler was the original artist. Old Battersea Bridge is now in the Tate Gallery, the National Gallery of British Art, London. Photograph.

237 GREAVES, WHISTLER AND CHELSEA. A PERSONAL NOTE.
WEST LONDON BOOK STORE, 157 KING’S ROAD, CHELSEA, JUNE 1911.
A pamphlet in praise of Walter Greaves, published a month after the opening of his Exhibition at the Goupil Gallery. Contains one of Greaves’ paintings of Whistler in the flat-brimmed hat long before Whistler wore it.

238 A REPLY TO AN ATTACK MADE BY ONE OF WHISTLER’S BIOGRAPHERS ON A PUPIL OF WHISTLER, MR. WALTER GREAVES AND HIS WORKS. BY WILLIAM MARCHANT AND CO., THE GOUPIL GALLERY, 1911.
Pamphlet by William Marchant, dull and long-winded, in defense of Walter Greaves for an attack which had never been made. The pamphlet fell flat, for by the time it appeared Walter Greaves was all but forgotten.

Third Edition, in which the dates have been withdrawn from the Catalogue, though not from the Introduction, which consisted of "an extract from a letter received by the Firm from Mr. Walter Greaves": really a note written by "the Firm" and signed by Walter Greaves.

WALTER GREAVES (PUPIL OF WHISTLER) BY CHRISTIAN BRINTON. COTTIER AND CO. 1912. NEW YORK.

Catalogue of the Greaves Exhibition in New York. Dr. Brinton re-echoed the praise of the British critics and many of their misstatements, but Greaves had little success in America. At the sale of his works shortly afterwards his pictures fetched low prices.

CASE 6-A

Portraits and Caricatures of Whistler.

249 TWO PORTRAITS OF WHISTLER BY HIMSELF.

Chalk drawings. At one time he was said to have made a drawing of this kind every night before going to bed. Photographs.

250 SKETCHES BY MORTIMER MENPES.

Among them portraits of Whistler. Photographs.

251 PORTRAITS AND CARICATURES OF WHISTLER.

252 LETTER FROM WHISTLER TO HIS SISTER, LADY HADEN.

Written in 1858 on his journey to Alsace with Ernest Delannoy.

Top: Sketch showing them as they looked after days of walking. To the right are Whistler's shoes which, he writes, have got rid of a portion of their soles, and a great part of their upper leather.

Bottom: Sketch showing their reception at the Café on their arrival in Paris. Photographs.
CASE 6–B

Portraits and Caricatures of Whistler.—Memorials to Whistler.

253 ROOMS IN WHISTLER'S CHEYNE WALK HOUSE.
Top: The Room Whistler used as studio in his first house in Cheyne Walk, No. 101. It was here he painted The Little White Girl.
Middle: Corner of another Room with Japanese decoration in the same house.
Bottom: Recess opposite windows in Dining room. Photographs.

Open at the attributed portrait in Freer collection. It also contains Whistler Smoking, of the genuineness of which Mr. Gallatin seems to have no doubt, nor have we; we do not believe it by Whistler. An inscription “Joseph Pennell, with the author’s compliments.” Inserted typewritten copy of the Iconography, a letter from Mr. Gallatin, and other items.

Open at Dry-Point Whistler Asleep, by Boldini. Inscription on the fly-leaf: “To Joseph Pennell, Esq. with the author’s compliments.”

273 WRITINGS BY AND ABOUT JAMES ABBOTT MCNEILL WHISTLER. A BIBLIOGRAPHY BY DON C. SEITZ. EDINBURGH, OTTO SCHULZE AND CO., 1910.

The Whistler Compendium by S. D. Shallard, announced by Schulze & Co. in 1905, was to have been arranged on much the same plan later adopted by Mr. Seitz. Mr. Shallard and his Compendium have never been heard of since Seitz’s announcement.

SKETCHES BY WHISTLER—PORTRAITS OF WHISTLER.

CASE 6-E

Sketches and Reproductions.

274 ORIGINAL SKETCH BY WHISTLER.

Top: Pencil Sketch by Whistler, made in the Pennells’ Buckingham Street flat one evening when London was being decorated for Queen Victoria’s Diamond Jubilee, 1897. The arrangements in Trafalgar Square delighted Whistler, and Joseph Pennell was so delighted with Whistler’s sketch that he took it to The Daily Chronicle, in which paper it was printed, June 18, 1897, Whistler making a few changes and signing it with Butterfly. Bottom: Reproduction in The Daily Chronicle.

275 PORTRAIT OF WHISTLER.

Reproduction of charcoal drawing by Paul Rajon.

276 PORTRAIT OF WHISTLER.

From a wood-block in colour by William Nicholson. One of a series, beginning with Queen Victoria, for The New Review when Henley was editor. Whistler suggested pose and arrangement. Probably done from a snapshot. The woodcut looks more like a pen drawing printed as a photo-lithograph.

277 NOT KNOWN AT THE R. A.

Top: Circular addressed to Whistler at the Academy by a publisher in Naples. It was delivered to the Royal Academy, London, and returned to the Post Office with “Not known at the R. A.” written on it. It was afterwards sent to the weekly, The Academy, where Whistler was known, and the editor forwarded him the circular. Whistler was so pleased not to be known at the R. A. that he allowed The Daily Chronicle to reproduce the wrapper with the R. A.’s comment. Bottom: Reproduction in The Daily Chronicle.
CASE 6-F
Drawings by Whistler.

278 PENCIL DRAWING.
Little Nude, drawn by Whistler, March, 1897, in Buckingham Street. At this period he was making pastels and lithographs of nudes and draped figures and the subject was always with him. Mr. Heinemann had a similar sketch made, while Whistler talked.

279 PORTRAIT. PEN DRAWING.
Sketch by Whistler of his Portrait, shown in the Paris Universal Exposition of 1900. Butterfly signature. The most elaborate pen drawing Whistler ever made. From the Carmen Collection.

280 BAND STAND IN THE EMBANKMENT GARDENS, CHARING CROSS, LONDON.
Made from the windows of the Pennells' Buckingham Street flat. Pencil sketch.

CASE 6-G
Sketches.

281 PENCIL SKETCHES BY WHISTLER.
Made as he sat talking with Mr. and Mrs. Pennell in their Buckingham Street flat, after dinner.

282 PROOF OF CIRCULAR FOR "SONGS ON STONE."
A series of lithographs in colour which Heinemann proposed to publish but never did. The corrections are Whistler's, the Butterfly added to show where it should go on the circular.

283 PENCIL SKETCH ON PAPER WRAPPER OF "EVELYN INNES."
Made June 16, 1898, in the Buckingham Street flat. Whistler was always making little sketches of the work he was doing at the time.

CASE 6-H
Portraits and Caricatures of Whistler.

284 PORTRAIT OF WHISTLER.
Reproduction of an etching by Mortimer Menpes. Probably a snapshot, but that was from life.

285 PORTRAIT OF WHISTLER.
Painting by Walter Greaves, one of many. Note resemblance to Spy's Cartoon in every way, save hat, which Whistler did not wear at the time. Photograph.
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

286 CARICATURE OF WHISTLER.
By Spy (Leslie Ward) called A Symphony. Published in Vanity Fair, January 12th, 1878. The original is now in the National Portrait Gallery, London, the only portrait of Whistler in an English public gallery.

287 FIFTY DRAWINGS BY AUBREY BEARDSLEY SELECTED FROM THE COLLECTION OWNED BY MR. H. S. NICHOLS. PUBLISHED FOR SUBSCRIBERS ONLY. NEW YORK, H. S. NICHOLS. MCMXX.
These drawings have been stated not to be by Beardsley. ("Let me say at the outset that these drawings are not by Beardsley."—Georges Derry.)

288 PORTRAIT OF WHISTLER.
Reproduction of Dry-Point by Paul Helleu made when Whistler was sitting to Boldini.

EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

366 ETCHING AND ETCHERS, BY PHILIP GILBERT HAMERTON. THIRD EDITION. LONDON, MACMILLAN & CO., 1880.
Contains Billingsgate and a very patronizing article on Whistler.

366a CRITIQUE D’AVANT-GARDE, PAR THÉODORE DURET. PARIS, G. CHARPENTIER ET CIE, 1885.
Duret was one of the first in Paris to recognize and appreciate Whistler.

367 FOUR MASTERS OF ETCHING, BY FREDERICK WEDMORE. LONDON: THE FINE ART SOCIETY, 1883.
Whistler is one of the Four Masters and his Putney is reproduced. The book is elaborately annotated by Joseph Pennell.

OCTAGON—LOWER SECTION. CASE III.

Important Works containing Articles on Whistler.

Dr. Singer’s latest work on the Graphic Arts. He gives a section to America and the first place in that section to Whistler. On title-page, autograph inscription: “To Joseph Pennell from Hans W. Singer.”

Study of Etching from the lawyer’s standpoint. The list of prices at the end is as useful as the rest of the book is worthless. Eighth state of The Balcony, one of the Venice plates, is reproduced.

370 ETCHING. AN OUTLINE OF ITS TECHNICAL PROCESSES AND ITS HISTORY, WITH SOME REMARKS ON COLLECTIONS AND COLLECTING, BY S. R. KOEHLER. NEW YORK, LONDON, PARIS AND MELBOURNE, CASSELL AND COMPANY, 1885.
The first important book on Etching published in the United States. Koehler really cared for Art and he issued the only important non-official Art Magazine (The American Art Review) published in this country. Whistler’s etching A Street in London, printed from an electrotype furnished by the Gazette des Beaux Arts, in which it illustrated the article on Whistler by Théodore Duret, reprinted in L’Avant-Garde.
Autograph letters from Whistler to Mr. and Mrs. Pennell.

371 PETIT BLEU.
From Whistler to Pennell, July, 1893, asking him to "come round." Characteristic of many written in the summer of 1893.

372 FIRST LETTER JOSEPH PENNELL RECEIVED FROM WHISTLER, JULY, 1893.
Pennell was staying at the top of an old house on the Quai des Grands-Augustins.

373 LAST COMMUNICATION FROM WHISTLER.
Written in February 1903, during his last illness.

374 POST-CARD FROM PARIS, APRIL, 1894.

375 NOTE TO MRS. PENNELL, JUNE, 1896.
Accepting an invitation to dinner. The envelope has the deep black border he used the first months after his wife’s death.

376 NOTE TO JOSEPH PENNELL.
In Rheims, 1893.

377 CARDS.

Original Drawings on Wood.

387 PHOTOGRAPHS OF THREE DRAWINGS ON WOODBLOCKS, NEVER ENGRAVED.
Left: Portrait of the artist’s sister-in-law, Mrs. Whibley. Right: Illustration for Little Johannes, not published.

388–392 FIVE DRAWINGS ON WOOD BLOCKS NEVER ENGRAVED.
Two described in 387. The others are slight sketches.

Gives July 15, 1851, as date of the admission of James A. Whistler, cadet-at-large, age 16 years and 11 months. He stood "A" in Mathematics, "One" in Drawing, and "A" in French, and out of a class of 48, he had gained 168 demerits to the year, nearly the largest number. Note states he was not examined. Absent with leave on account of ill health. He was last in Third Class (1853).

392b STATE LIBRARY BULLETIN, UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, BIBLIOGRAPHY NO. 1, MAY 1896. GUIDE TO THE STUDY OF JAMES ABBOTT MCNEILL WHISTLER, COMPILED BY WALKER G. FORSYTH AND JOSEPH LE ROI HARRISON.
A publication of which Whistler strongly disapproved because he had not been consulted.

57
392c Correspondence. Paddon Papers. The Owl and The Cabinet, Butterfly. 12 Pages.

One of the rarest of Whistler's pamphlets.

392d Photograph of the Cabinet.
The Cabinet, which led to complications with Howell, "The Owl," is now owned by Sydney Morse, London.

OCTAGON—LOWER SECTION. CASE VII.

Whistler and Du Maurier. The Trilby Affair.

393 Letter from Messrs. Forster Frere, The Harpers' Solicitors in London.
Expressing the regrets of the Harpers and of Osgood, McIlvaine and Company, their London agents, and their readiness to make Du Maurier omit Joe Sibley, the offensive character in Trilby, and meet Whistler's wishes in every way. (See No. 401.)

394 Letter from Messrs. Forster Frere.
To Messrs. Webb explaining the substitution of Bald Antony for Joe Sibley in Trilby.

395 Letter from Whistler to The Pall Mall Gazette.
Exposes Du Maurier's "Villainy of goodfellowship."

396 From The Pall Mall Gazette.

397 The Pall Mall Gazette for May 19, 1894.
Interview with Du Maurier after the publication of Whistler's first letter in the same paper.

398 From The Pall Mall Gazette.
Letter from Whistler with his comments on the interview with Du Maurier (see No. 397).

"Compliments and complete approval of author's new and obscure friend Bald Antony."

In this number, an elaborate description of Joe Sibley and a drawing of him as the Idle Apprentice. Whistler, when he saw this and the preceding number of Harper's was indignant and called Messrs. Harpers' attention to the insult.

58
EXHIBITION OF WHISTLERIANA

401 HARPER'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR FEBRUARY, 1894.

The first article is the Second Part of Trilby by George Du Maurier, introducing the character of Joe Sibley, a gross caricature of Whistler during his student days in the Latin Quarter. He is presented as a coward, a poseur, a boaster. In this drawing he is seen in the extreme left running away faster than the others.

402 HARPER'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR JANUARY, 1895.

Messrs. Harper had not realized the insult. When Webb, Whistler's solicitor, called their attention to it, they compelled Du Maurier to omit Joe Sibley from the magazine and later from the book, and substitute an Antony as different as possible from Whistler. They also apologized. This number of Harper's is opened at the Apology.

OCTAGON—LOWER SECTION. CASE VIII.

Propositions and Interrupted Correspondence.

403 FACSIMILE OF WHISTLER'S PROPOSITION NO. 2.

The Further Proposition. First published by Mr. Malcolm C. Salaman in The Court and Society Review for July 1, 1886, and a year later, 1887, by Mr. Walter Dowdeswell in The Art Journal. It supplements and completes The First Proposition. Afterwards, Whistler included it in The Gentle Art.

405 FACSIMILE OF WHISTLER'S PROPOSITION.

Published in the Catalogue of "Notes"—"Harmonies"—"Nocturnes," Dowdeswell's, May, 1884. The French translation made for the Académie Carmen by Théodore Duret. It is the complete expression of Whistler's theory of art, laughed at at the time, but now accepted by all intelligent artists. Whistler included it in The Gentle Art.

406 AN INTERRUPTED CORRESPONDENCE.

AN INTERRUPTED CORRESPONDENCE.

Autograph letter from Whistler to the Editor of The Standard, Chelsea, Nov. 23, 1902. This the editor refused to print, and Whistler's idea was that Heine-mann should issue The Interrupted Correspondence in a brown paper pamphlet, but it was never published.
